

Greetings from the 4th and 5th grades!!!

“Stuff Going On...”

Well, it's time for a break to relax and enjoy our families. Time to remember the past memories and enter a year for new memories. 2012 !!!

Everyone has done a great job on his or her Caldecott book reports. Several are finished will present their reports early. Thank you for encouraging your child and allowing them to use your computers and printers.

The last day of school is only a half of a day and will be busy. Everyone is out of uniform. The first part of the day will be catching up on any final work and cleaning out desks and lockers. Then we go chapel at 10:00. Parties will start immediately after chapel. I am so very sorry that I may not be there for this, but I know the class will have lots of fun. Please remember that your child needs to bring a small gift to play the Dirty Santa game. Thank you for goodies and your help.

I wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a joyous New Year!!! God Bless you all abundantly. ☺

Be ready for 2012!!!

As the new semester begins, please make sure your child has new supplies for anything that has been lost, worn out, chewed up, used up, or dried up. This especially includes erasable blue or black pens, pencils, erasers, glue, markers, and scissors. Ask your child what they may need.

For “homework”, I ask that everyone read, get outside to play, and bring back news of things they have learned. New words, new ideas, new world information, new discoveries, etc.

Now that the cold is really beginning to settle in, I will be opening the “class kitchen” to hot chocolate in January. Your child may bring their own mugs and hot drink mix each day if they choose. I will supply spoons and the hot water. Your child may bring cocoa, hot tea, or cider, but no coffee drinks please. We will have a hot drink in the mornings to get the day started.

Remember, report cards will go out the week after we return to school.

Do you know what Rudolph's girlfriend's name is? What is a crèche? Why did Teddy Roosevelt ban Christmas trees in the White House during his term? See if your child can answer these!
